THE LIGHT AT HOME. The Light at Home! how bright it beams
When evening shades around us fall!
And from the lattice far it gleams,
To love, to rest, and comfort call.
When tired with the toils of day,
The strife for glory, gold or fame,

Where loving lips will lisp our name Around the Light at Home! When, through the dark and stormy night, The weary wanderer homeward hies, How cheering is that twinkling light Which, through the forest gloom, he spies! It is the Light at Home; he feels That loving heart will greet him there, And softly through his bosom steals
The joy and love that vanish care,
Around the Light at Home.

The Light at Home! how still and sweet It greets the seamen through the storm, He feels no more the chilling blast That bears upon his manly form. Long years upon the sea have fled, Since Mary gave her parting kiss. But the sad tears which then she shed, Will now be paid with rapturous bliss,

Around the Liget at Home. The Light at Home! how still and sweet It peeps from yonder cottage door— The weary laborer to great— When the rough toils of day are o'er! Sad is the soul that does not know The blessings that its beams impart, The cheerful hopes and joys that flow, And lighten up the heaviest heart, Around the Light of Home!
